EAT, DRINK AND BE MERRY POTLUCK LUNCH...

... for exhibitors and spectators between the two shows WITH A SPECIAL PRIZE OFFERED BY THE COLLIE CLUB OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA FOR BEST HOMEMADE DISH. CCNC will provide coffee, paper plates and utensils. All club members, exhibitors, and spectators are encouraged to bring Crockpots with main dishes or cold side dishes. For those coming from a distance, we suggest packaged items like chips, cookies, bottles of water, or canned soda. Hungry but can't bring a dish, there will be a donation jar. Brent Seymour will coordinate Potluck via email: springbankcollies@me.com.

... Admission to the lunch Potluck line will be by ticket. Anyone bringing a dish or exhibiting or is a collie spectator at our show may pick up tickets from Brent Seymour or at the raffle table during the AM show. The Potluck line will not open up until the first show is concluded and will close by 3 pm. All dishes and left-overs must be removed by 3 pm.

... morning faire of coffee, tea, donuts, yogurt and fruit will be available prior to the lunch and will not require a ticket.

Raffle: CCNC will have a huge raffle featuring a jewelry piece from the Virginia Perry Gardner Collection. As always, a portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Collie Health Foundation.

Silent Auction: of The Collie in America by Gayle Kaye, donated by Catherine Brooker, will be available for bids at the raffle table.

Judges' Dinner: 7pm at the Mandarin Gourmet Restaurant, 5560 Santa Teresa Blvd, San Jose. Reservations and pre-payment by check made out to CCNC may be made by mail or in person at the show up to 10 am. Seating is limited to 30 people.
